OPENING PRAYER

O God, the source of all joy, you have nudged us together through the prodding of your Spirit. Lead us in worship, this day. Erase from us any pride over the righteousness of being here on a big holiday weekend, when many others worship on beaches and in parks. Instead, enthuse us, excite us with nothing more than the pure joy of gathering together in your Spirit. Help us to expect great things from you. Enable us to see your miracles in little packages, and not just big. Empower us, even today, to step out in faith toward the directions in which you call us. We praise you, echoing the celebration of your heavenly host. We love you, returning your greater Love. Strengthen us to serve you, following in the footsteps of the One whom you sent with a tub and a towel: Jesus Christ. In his name we pray. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING

Psalm 98 The Message verses 1,4-8

Sing to God a brand-new song. He's made a world of wonders!
He rolled up his sleeves, He set things right. Shout your praises to God, everybody! Let loose and sing! Strike up the band! Round up an orchestra to play for God, Add on a hundred-voice choir. Feature trumpets and big trombones. Fill the air with praises to King God. Let the sea and its fish give a round of applause, With everything living on earth joining in. Let ocean breakers call out, "Encore!" And mountains harmonize the finale.
The word of God, for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.
